Re: International Longshore & Warehouse Union (Pacific Maritime Assn.),
19-CB-169296

Dear Counsel and Parties:

Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision in the above-referenced case were due to be filed with the Board in Washington, D.C. on June 22, 2017. Section 102.2 (b) of the Board's Rules and Regulations states that "the Board will accept as timely filed any document which is postmarked on the day before (or earlier than) the due date." The Charging Party filed exceptions by mail, which were postmarked on July 21, 2017, the day before the due date for exceptions. As such, the Charging Party's exceptions were timely filed.

An extension of time to file answering briefs to exceptions was granted, extending the due date for filing answering briefs to exceptions to July 24, 2017. Intervenor Pacific Maritime Association filed an answering brief to the Charging Party's exceptions on July 6, 2017, well before the due date for answering briefs. Pursuant to Section 102.46(e) of the Board's Rules and Regulations, reply briefs to answering briefs to exceptions may be filed within 14 days from the last date on which an answering brief may be filed. As answering briefs were due by July 24, 2017, reply briefs may be filed no later than August 7, 2017.

It has been brought to our attention that Charging Party did not receive service of the answering brief filed by Intervenor Pacific Maritime Association. A copy of that answering brief is enclosed with this letter. Due to the Charging Party's late receipt of Intervenor Pacific Maritime Association's answering brief to exceptions, the due date for the receipt of replies to this answering brief is extended to 14 days from today, i.e., August 21, 2017. This extension for filing replies to Intervenor Pacific Maritime Association's answering brief to exceptions applies to all parties.

/s/ Roxanne L. Rothschild
